Business associates include any legal firm, accountant, consultant, billing service, volunteers/assistants or other person that may have access to patient's personal information.
- All medical files and records (including telephone, letters, email, and faxes) are stored according to Massachusetts law.
- Telephone voicemail and texting messages will include as minimal information as possible.
- Each fax and email will include a confidentiality statement.

Point of Healing Acupuncture values our relationship and respects your right to privacy. If you have any questions about our privacy practices, please ask.

Consent to the Use & Disclosure of Health Information for Treatment, Payment and Health Care Operations Form

I consent to the use or disclosure of my identifiable health information by Point of Healing Acupuncture for the purposes of diagnosis or providing treatment to, obtaining payment for my health care bills, or to conduct health care operations. I understand that diagnosis and treatment of me at Point of Healing Acupuncture may be conditioned upon my consent as evidenced by my signature on this document.

I understand I have the right to request a restriction as to how my identifiable health information is used or disclosed to carry out treatment, payment or health care operations of the practice. If Point of Healing Acupuncture agrees to a restriction that I request, the restriction is binding upon Point of Healing Acupuncture.

I have the right to revoke this consent, in writing, at any time except to the extent that Point of Healing Acupuncture has taken action in reliance on this consent.

My identifiable health information means health information, including my demographic information, collected from me and created or received by my practitioner, another health care provider, a health plan, my employer or a health care clearinghouse. This identifiable health information relates to my past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition and identifies me, or there is a reasonable basis to believe the information may identify me.

I received and reviewed Point of Healing Acupuncture Notice of Privacy Practices prior to signing this document. The Notice of Privacy Practices describes the types of uses and disclosures of my identifiable health information that will occur in my treatment, payment of my bills, or in the performance of health care operations of Point of Healing Acupuncture. This Notice of Privacy Practices also describes my rights and the duties of my practitioner(s) with respect to my identifiable health information.

Point of Healing Acupuncture reserves the right to change information contained in the Notice of Privacy Practices at any time. I may obtain a revised Notice of Privacy Practices during any office visit. If any changes are made to the Notice of Privacy Practices, the new version will be posted in the office for a period of at least one month.

By voluntarily signing below, I have carefully read or have had read to me, the above consent for purposes of treatment, payment, and health care operations. I understand my rights to change this consent at any time.

Consent to Treatment Form

I hereby request and consent to the performance of acupuncture treatments and other procedures within the scope of the practice of acupuncture on me (or for whom I am legally responsible) by the licensed acupuncturists at Point of Healing Acupuncture who now or in the future treat me while employed by, working with, or serving as back-up at Point of Healing Acupuncture.

I understand that methods of treatment may include, but are not limited to acupuncture, dermal needling, moxibustion, heat lamp therapy, cupping, gwa sha, electrical stimulation, tui-na massage, and sotai exercises. I understand that acupuncture is performed by the insertion of needles through the skin or by the application of heat to the skin (or both) at certain points on or near the surface of the body. I understand that acupuncture is generally a safe method of treatment but it may have side effects including, but are not limited to: bruising, numbness, tingling, minor bleeding, dizziness, fainting, pain, discomfort, and the possible aggravation of symptoms existing prior to acupuncture treatment. Bruising is a common side effect of cupping and gwa sha. Unusual risks of acupuncture include spontaneous miscarriage, nerve damage, organ puncture including the lungs (pneumothorax), and infection. Unusual risks of electrical acupuncture include electrical shock, pain, discomfort, and the possible aggravation of symptoms existing prior to treatment. Burns and/or scarring are potential risks of moxibustion, heat lamps, cupping, and gwa sha.

I understand that Point of Healing Acupuncture staff may review my patient records and laboratory reports, but all my records will be kept confidential and will not be released without my written consent unless permitted to do so in the Notice of Privacy Practices Policy. I understand that there may be other treatment alternatives, including treatment offered by a licensed physician.

By voluntarily signing below, I have carefully read or have had read to me, the above consent to treatment. I have been informed about the risks and benefits of acupuncture and other procedures. I had the opportunity to ask questions. I intend this consent form to cover the entire course of treatment for my present condition and for any future conditions for which I seek treatment. I give my permission and consent to treatment.
